

1,680 VILLAGE COURTS
NATIONWIDE

16,000+ ACTIVE COURT
OFFICIALS

1st POINT OF JUSTICE
FOR CITIZENS

1. NATIONWIDE IMPACT

Village Courts in PNG

- 1,680 Village Courts operating nationwide
- More than 16,000 Village Court officials serving communities
- First point of justice for most Papua New Guineans

Strategy Implementation

- Village Courts legislation reviewed through consultations
- Village Courts Strategy socialised nationally
- VCLMS planning and leadership systems strengthened

2. WHAT'S CHANGED

What's Changed

- Stronger leadership within VCLMS
- Village Courts applying Family Protection Act
- Community justice reform embedded in systems

Gender / Survivor Justice

- Gender Analysis of Village Courts completed
- Survivor-centred justice training delivered
- Gender-responsive training institutionalised nationally

3. FRONTLINE & DATA

Frontline Justice

- Family Protection Act training for magistrates
- Central Province PVCC operationalised
- Youth recruitment pathways for court officials

Data and Accountability

- Village Court reporting systems strengthened
- Sex-disaggregated justice data introduced
- Village Court Impact Evaluation developed

4. LOOKING AHEAD

Where We Are Now

- Village Court reform embedded in government systems
- Stronger community justice partnerships
- Gender-responsive justice approaches institutionalised

Looking Ahead

- Village Courts legislative reform progressing
- PVCC operations model expands to other provinces
- Impact evaluation to guide future reform

